Italia: AAP emerges as national political party

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, DECEMBER 7

AFTER THE results of Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) elections were announced Wednesday where the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) won with clear majority, party state president Gopal Italia said the AAP was emerging as a new national political party.

Addressing the media at Kataragam in Surat, Italia said, "The AAP is the smallest part of the country that has given a tough fight to the BJP. With good work in Delhi, the AAP has gained the confidence of the people and uprooted the 15-year-old rule of BJP in MCD."

About the results of the Gujarat Assembly elections to be declared on Thursday, he said, "The people of Gujarat will also show their love for AAP leaders as Isudan Gadhiya and others..."

Gujarat BJP finds comfort in rise in party vote share

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GANDHINAGAR, DECEMBER 7

EVEN AS the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) defeated BJP in the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) elections Wednesday, the Gujarat BJP seems to be seeing the brighter side of the results.

According to the results, Gujarat BJP general secretary Pradeep Vaghela said, "The party's share has increased. Our party has fought the elections well. They (AAP) have a government in Delhi and people have given them a chance. Congratulations to them."

Asked if where did the party fall short, Vaghela said, "(Local unit of) The Party must have worked hard. It will work harder for the upcoming Assembly elections there and defeat the AAP."

Gujarat BJP spokesperson Yash Vyas highlighted the fact that Congress has been wiped out in Delhi and that similar fate seems to be in the Gujarat Assembly election results Thursday.

Vaghela said, "One thing is clear, 'The Congress has been wiped out in Delhi and the party in charge in Delhi is Sharad Joshi who is claiming victory for the Congress (Assembly elections). So, the Congress is going to be equally wiped out in Gujarat also.'

EC completes counting preparations

Counting to be held at 37 centres; entire process will be videographed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, DECEMBER 7

THE ELECTION Commission has completed preparations for counting of votes that is set to be held at 37 counting centres across Gujarat on Thursday. The entire process will be video-graphed.

The counting process will begin at 8 am when the postal ballots will be counted first. From 8.30 am onwards, votes cast on the EVMs will be counted. While there is one counting centre in each of the 33 districts, three counting centres have been set up in Ahmedabad, while two counting centres each have been set up in Surat and Anand, stated an official release here.

As many as 182 counting observers and an equal number of election officials will be deployed for the counting process. Every table in the counting centres will have a micro-observer, counting supervisor and a counting assistant.

The elections for the Gujarat Assembly was held in two phases on December 1 and 5. The elections saw a turnout of 54.33 per cent, the lowest in the past 10 years. Of the 4.9 crore voters listed on the electoral rolls, only 3.16 crore voted, of which 66.74 per cent were men and 61.75 per cent were women.

Of the 182 seats for which counting will be held, the BJP contested on all the seats, while the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) contested on 181 seats. The Congress contested on 179 seats, while its alliance partner NCP contested on two seats.

In the 2017 Assembly elections, the BJP, with a vote share of 49 per cent, won 99 seats, while the Congress with a vote share of 41 per cent won 77 seats.

BRTS bus catches fire near Maninagar; no casualties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, DECEMBER 7

A BUS Rapid Transport System (BRTS) bus was destroyed after caught fire near Maninagar bus stop in Ahmedabad Wednesday. There were no injuries.

"The incident happened at 4 pm between Maninagar railway station and bus stop due to an engine malfunction. There were 11 passengers in the bus who evacuated themselves as soon as the fire started," said Om Jadeja, Divisional Fire Officer, Ahmedabad.

No injury has been reported, but the bus was charred. The situation was brought under control within 10 minutes with the help of three fire engines.

According to a government official, "The bus had a six-kilogram fire extinguisher. Had that been used, much of the damage to the bus could have been prevented."

In Saurashtra-Kutch, more BJP seats with lower voter turnout; glimpses of 2017

GOPAL KATESHIYA
RAJKOT, DECEMBER 7

OF THE 21 Assembly constituencies in Saurashtra-Kutch that recorded a four per cent or more decline in voter turnout this election, 15 are currently held by the ruling BJP, while only four are with the Opposition Congress, polling data suggests.

This might be bad news for the BJP if the 2017 numbers are taken into account. In a similar decline in voter turnout five years ago, the saffron party had lost eight of the 17 seats in the region.

Polling was conducted for the 54 seats of the Saurashtra-Kutch and South Gujarat regions in the first phase on December 1. According to the data released by the Election Commission of India (EC), Saurashtra-Kutch recorded an average 51.17 per cent turnout – 3.77 per cent lower than the 54.91 per cent recorded in the 2017 Assembly elections.

Interestingly, a similar trend was observed in 2017 when the voter turnout in 17 of the 95 seats held by the BJP was lower by four per cent or more. The saffron party had then lost eight of the 17 seats to the Congress. On other hand, only 11 Congress seats had recorded a lower turnout but the Opposition party had managed to hold on to them all. While the Congress managed to increase its 16 seats to 30 seats against what it won in 2012 in the Saurashtra-Kutch region, the BJP's numbers had shrunk to 23.

Noteworthy, Morbi, Jasan, Manavadar, Dharai and Gadhad were originally won by the Congress in the 2017 Assembly elections. However, Brijesh Meja, Kunwarji, Bavaliya, Jawahar Chavda, JV Kakadiya and Pravin Maru, the Congress MLAs from the district respectively, had lost their seats to BJP nominees and therefore, are sitting BJP MLAs.

Bavaliya and Chavda were ministers in the Rupani government until they were replaced in September, 2021. Meja, on the other hand, is a minister in the outgoing Bhupendra Patel government that succeeded Rupani's government. Among the turncoats, Bavaliya, Chavda and Kakadiya are seeking re-election as BJP candidates this election.

Harshad Ribadiya and Bhagwan Barad, the Congress MLAs from Visavadar and Talala seats respectively, also switched over to the BJP in October and November this year and are contesting as BJP candidates.

Barring its sitting MLAs from Jasan, Tariji, Gandhinagar, Dharai and Manavadar, the BJP has denied tickets to its sitting MLAs from the remaining 10 seats and instead, has fielded fresh faces. On the other hand, the Congress has given mandates to its sitting MLAs from Dhoraji, Kalavada, Junagadh and Amreli, while bringing in new faces in Visavadar and Talala after the defections.

Saurashtra-Kutch include former chief minister Vilay Patel's Rajkot West (-11.42 per cent), Jasdan (-11.47 per cent), Tariji (-7.72 per cent), Jamnagar North (-7.68 per cent), Jamnagar South (-7.28 per cent), Morbi (-5.48 per cent), Rajkot East (-5.08 per cent) and Rajkot South (-5.62 per cent).

Other BJP seats that saw a noticeable decline include Gandhinagar (-6.68 per cent), Mandvi (-5.29 per cent), Bhuj (-5.16 per cent), Dharai (-7.24 per cent), Bhavnagar East (-4.52 per cent), Gadhad (-5.72 per cent) and Manavadar (-4.74 per cent).

On the other hand, the Congress seats that saw a decline of four per cent or more include Dhoraji (-6.03 per cent), Kalavad (-5.40 per cent), Junagadh (-4.77 per cent), Visavadar (-6.93 per cent) and Talala (-6.83 per cent) and Amreli (-6.93 per cent).

Interestingly, a similar trend was observed in 2017 when the voter turnout in 17 of the 95 seats held by the BJP was lower by four per cent or more. The saffron party had then lost eight of the 17 seats to the Congress. On other hand, only 11 Congress seats had recorded a lower turnout but the Opposition party had managed to hold on to them all.
