EXPLAINER

LONGER MARKET HOURS: GAINS & RISKS

At a recent pre-Budget roundtable, Ashish Chauhan, MD & CEO of the National Stock Exchange (NSE), batted for longer trading hours in the Indian markets. The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) has left the final decision to exchanges. Siddhant Mishra takes a look at the implications of longer hours for stock markets

Proponents say... LONGER TRADING hours will allow for a more manageable overnight risk. Retail players mostly opt for in-tray setting of trades, because of which they face overnight risks in developments in geographies that work after India's working hours can have a significant impact and make trade more costly. With longer hours, participants can price in early developments in some Western markets.

Behind the demand for longer trading hours...

ATA RECENT roundtable, NSE MD & CEO Ashish Chauhan urged industry bodies to back the proposal, saying that jurisdictions like Singapore have benefited by using prices in Indian markets to trade. In contrast, India, despite being a developing country, has resisted longer hours.

Table with 2 columns: Operating times for India regular trading, for New York Stock Exchange, for Shanghai Composite, for Tokyo Stock Exchange, for the Frankfurt bourse.

Trading hours in India & abroad IN INDIA, the regular trading session opens at 9.15 am and functions till 3.30 pm. The derivatives market also remains open during the same time, while the Securities Lending and Borrowing market opens at 9.15 am but functions till 5 pm. Only the commodity derivatives market remains open from 9 am to 11.30 pm.

No evidence, say some...

AN ARTICLE on mtlawson.com says empirical evidence shows the 2010 move to extend timings by an hour hasn't led to any perceptible increase in volumes. It also says that an extension won't likely help in the known as the 'fat finger' effect in the Singapore and Dubai bourses, as many other factors are at play besides trading hours. For instance, traders don't have to pay a securities transaction tax while trading in the SGX, unlike the case in Indian markets.

Longer hours would enable mutual funds (MFs), banks and insurance companies that have large equity holdings to participate in hedging; the move will also give them more liquidity, Chauhan had said at the roundtable. He was addressing representatives of the Association of National Exchanges Members of India or ANMI, the Bombay Stock Exchange Brokers' Forum, and the Commodity Participants Association of India.

What could be the likely impact of an extension?

SOME OVERSEAS markets see longer trading hours, and implementation of the same in India would bring it on a par with them. Would this move have a material impact on the markets? Market analyst Ambareesh Baliga says any extension would consequently lead to an increase in volumes, but won't lead to an increase in costs as the extension will likely be by a couple of hours. "Most likely, the futures and options (F&O) segment will start with the longer hours, with the cash segment following later. It won't be extended for the overall markets immediately," he said. Overseas markets that focus for longer hours usually have shifts for traders, given the nature of the job. However, an extension if just a couple of hours may not introduce multiple shifts in India. Higher pressure on brokers and traders to execute trades, in tandem with the increased hours, could lead to an increase in errors in the absence of shifts. These are known as 'fat finger' errors — which are not malicious but could have a grave impact on trades. This pertains to cases where wrong values are entered into the system due to human errors. Insurance firms offer a product known as the Errors & Omission insurance to protect traders against such errors.

Zelensky speaks to Modi, seeks support

IN A PHONE conversation with Ukrainian Premier Volodymyr Zelensky said on Monday, PM Narendra Modi strongly reiterated his call for an immediate cessation of hostilities between Ukraine and Russia, and said both sides should revert to dialogue and diplomacy to find a lasting solution to their differences. In a tweet, Zelensky said he counted on New Delhi's support for the implementation of his "peace formula", which he had proposed on the G20 platform. The PM also Modi requested that the Ukrainian authorities facilitate arrangements for the continued education of the Indian students who had to return from the east European country earlier this year.—PTI

US funds turn cagey on Indian real estate

RAGHAVENDRA KAMATH Mumbai, December 26 BIG DEALS in commercial real estate have slowed down significantly as US investors in such properties have turned cautious due to reasons ranging from looming recession in American economy, rising interest rates, inflation, and mismatch in cap rates, fund managers and investment bankers said.

Swamy said another main reason for the halt in big deals is the mismatch between cap rate expectation between cap rate investors and sellers. Cap rates is the ratio between the annual real estate private equity firm, a real estate asset to its current market value. It is used to assess profitability and returns from investments. "While sellers want lower cap rates, US investors/buyers are looking to buy at a higher cap rate. Investors' view that the increase in interest rates should get reflected in the cap rates while sellers are justifying a higher cap by saying cash flows and quality of assets are same, so cap rates shouldn't go up," Swamy said. Shobhit Agarwal, managing director at Anarock, said American investors in Indian real estate have slowed down their activities for two reasons. Firstly, the year-end usually sees them take a break after ongoing deals are consummated. Secondly, the US currently faces a double whammy of looming recession and rising inflation.

MARVIN by Tom Armstrong

DAY TODAY

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)
It certainly should be a secretive day. In fact, it will do you good to spend a little time in quiet meditation. If this is impossible, you will probably find your mind wandering off into endless day-dreams. But, then, perhaps your imagination holds the answers to age-old questions.
LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)
Mercury is soon to shift its position again, meaning that your golden time for interviews, conferences and meetings is coming to an end. The deeper indications wandering off into endless day-dreams, but, then, perhaps your imagination holds the answers to age-old questions.
TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)
Delicate planetary alignments provide a veil which may obscure the stormy emotions beneath. An additional social gathering or romantic encounter will certainly raise your spirits and give more pressing problems. Any temporary diversion or distraction will cheer you up.
GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You seem to have a better idea of what went wrong, and how to put it right. Your will to succeed will be strong, but what you need out of a work situation varies. Today, it looks as if your real priority will be a sense of community, the feeling that everyone is working towards a common goal.
CANCER (June 22 - July 21)
Your lunar alignments really are splendid today, a fact which should more than compensate for recent disturbances of your. You are still in danger, though, of letting your feelings run away with you. If you're too sensitive about what you might imagine that someone's trying to get at, even though they're not.
LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)
Something still seems to be very secret, so much so that even you might be in the dark. It may be too late to stop a particular course of action, but firm agreements will be deferred for another five days. You have to wait until you're absolutely certain.
VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)
The entire situation is in a state of flux, but you may find that when people change their minds it doesn't affect what happens. Just carry on with your work as usual and nobody should bother you. And, if someone were cold to you on your ideas, it doesn't mean that they're wrong.
SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 23)
People at work are bound to find you more congenial if you make a dramatic switch from criticizing their weaknesses to praising their strengths. The irony here is that one is as true as the other, it's just that, with the latter, you just get what you want. Diplomacy always works best.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov 24 - Dec 22)
Home and family affairs should take priority now and over the coming two days. Fortunately, there are no indications of crisis or trauma, just pleasant signs that the more you get done now the happier you'll be. If you put off the inevitable then you'll only delay awkward questions.
CAPRICORN (Dec 23 - Jan 20)
